

Vi's Treasure List

1. Chest. I understood this came with them from Nova Scotia.
 2. Kettle. The first time I saw it was when I needed some "props" because I was to be an Indian in a school play. My Mother brought a long braid which she said had been Holly's hair and she couldn't bear to see it thrown away, so she kept it. I pinned it to my hair as part of my costume. She also brought out the kettle and said, "They used to cook in this." I didn't ask who or where. Years afterward she loaned the kettle to Holly because she had a fireplace to display it.
 3. "Black Thorn Stock" They said that when Willie was leaving for America the hired girl said, "Willie is going off to America without even a stick in his hand," and she grabbed it from someone else and gave it to him.
 4. Dog head cane. Belonged to Harry and can be seen in his photograph.
 5. Grandma Bell's loveseat set. Bought at Smyths on Michigan Blvd. Was in living room at 2424 Keeler, Chicago.
 6. Grandma Bell's wedding ring was wide. It was sliced in three and made into pins and given to the three daughters.
 7. Holly's ring with 1 single diamond went to Nodie then to Vi. After Grandma Bell's diamond was stolen at Nodie's, Vi gave Nodie the wedding ring.

Shirley's Treasures

Bruce Jrs. Have a 6 piece place setting from Chappells.

Bruce Jrs. Have Grandma Kubala's silverplate.

We gave Casey the wooden "Trunk" that Grandma Bell's relatives brought from England.

Branns have two of Grandma Foss' rockers.

Mark has an Oak end Table that I remember was always in the Bells' bedroom.

Alys has Hazel's dining room set.

Joy has one of Foss' rockers.

Eleanor has one set of dishes from Chappells.

Eleanor has Great Grandma Foss' clock.

The silver pieces have been given around. I think they were from Jens Copeland's Grandparents, although some of them might have been Marie's Mother's.

Bruces have one chair and a loveseat that were part of the Bell's wedding set.

Bruces have the platform rocker that was Great Grandma Foss' (Irving's Grandmother)

Joy has Grandma Foss' silver spoons that she got from Sr. Moe, for being named after her.

Ginger has Grandma Foss' silver. Fosses were given this on their 25th anniversary. The silver was carried in a suitcase on the train all the way to California. She wouldn't let anyone else carry it.

Bruce Jrs. Have another chair and Alys another loveseat.

Vi has Bells' "cumber."
