This report does not reflect that Sr. Pearl Owens left her home at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning and worked on her feet at the booth until 6:00 p.m....

She did not take a drink of water,

She did not stop for lunch,

She did not take a bathroom break during that time,

She did not take a walk around the fair.

When asked why, she replied, "I will not leave my post."

I did take a break at times. One time when I did, near the end of the day, I returned to find that Sr. Pearl had placed her first Volume!

Placing a Volume is not easy. Many can pass them out when they are FREE, but placing a Volume is a totally different experience. I don't remember the first Volume I placed, but I remember how it made me feel. Over the years I have watched as others have had their "first" experience...it's hard to describe the feeling.

Placing a 7-in-1 is hard! It's like placing a whole set of Volumes. You have to know what's in the Volumes...at least an overview of the books. This alone is not a bad exercise for Brethren to have when talking to others. The 6 Volumes and Tabernacle Shadows make up the most complete package of Truth we can offer. Very few activities our class has been involved in in the last 10 years have resulted in placing 19 sets (whether packaged in 1 book or 7...) in 2 days! Actually, I can't think of one other activity...14 were placed at last year's Book Fair."

Br. Mark Kandel

It's always a privilege to attend a public witness effort, and the Printer's Row Fair was no exception. To be ready to reply to any question submitted by the public. Surprisingly the subject of "hell" is one topic that holds and reason goes out the window. Yes, we talk and reference scriptures, but the burning and torturing of those who die without accepting Jesus will supposedly learn the truth in hell? Alas, we need many more public witness efforts to speak about our loving Creator, that all may learn and understand the four attributes of Jehovah. Justice, Wisdom, love, and power...no torture.

"Sanctify them through thy truth, Thy word is truth." John 17:17

Sr. Roberta Tabac and Sr. Wanda Jay

An additional 7-in-1 was sent to a man from Milwaukee, WI, as a result of the contact made with Sr. Roberta and Sr. Wanda at the fair, bringing the revised total to 20.
